

Dear Pastor:

Thank you for your interest and decision to come to Venezuela. I believe that your team will play an important role in what God is doing in the national church here. Because many of the local churches here are reaching to the poor, they do not have the funds needed to build their churches. Your help will be a tremendous blessing.

As a missionary, it is always an honor and a joy to work with maps teams. I don't begrudge the fact, but look forward to the opportunity. I not only enjoy getting to know the brethren from the States, but enjoy watching the relationships form between the maps team and the national church. It is a great blessing to me to watch the national pastor express his excitement and appreciation as the job progresses.

Enclosed is a small orientation manual for the team that can be included with yours. Please copy off the sheets and give to each member in advance of the trip.

I will be with the team on the job site working and helping in whatever way I can. Pastor, please know that I am available to help not only on the job but at any time. I am here to serve you. Please feel free to mention anything that I might do to make your trip a success.

I am looking forward to you and your team being here. May God continue to bless you as you labor for Him.

For His Kingdom,

Gary Heiney
